

Get Up-to-Date with SCoJeC's Mid-January E-News

SCoJeC Events Calendar

Thursday 21 January 7:00pm

SCoJeC Lecture Series: Last Year in Jerusalem

Join Scottish artist Stuart Duffin as he reflects on his Jerusalem-based art from 1996 to 2020. Stuart first travelled to Israel in 1996 to work at the Jerusalem Print Workshop for a month as part of an international artists exchange with the Glasgow Print Studio, and can't stop going back. Here he reflects on his understanding of the city, religious conflict, and the resolution found in his art. Click here to register.

Sunday 24 January 3:00pm

Yiddish Open Mic Café

Join the Yiddish Open Mic, a monthly event in which anyone with an interest in Yiddish can attend. You are invited to perform. Each performance should last no longer than 6 minutes and should be sent to yiddishcafe@gmail.com in advance. Click here to register.

Saturday 30 January 7:30pm

Burns Supper 2021

In partnership with Giffnock and Newton Mearns Shuls, we present The Legendary Giffnock Shul Burns Supper. From the comfort of your home. Hosted over Zoom.

Click here to register.

Thursday 11 February 7:00pm

Jewish Climate Network presents Professor Richard Milne

Join us for our next Jewish Climate Network event, a seminar delivered by University of Edinburgh Institute of Molecular Plant Science Lecturer, Dr. Richard Milne on Climate Change. Click here to register.

Sunday 21 February 7:00pm

A Very American Comedy Night

Celebrate Purim 2021 with a night full of laughs! Join Chicago's Jewish comedians Jeremy Drazner, Katharine Herskovic, Jessica Besser-Rosenberg, and Joe Medoff as they poke fun at Jewish life in contemporary America and their take on Scotland. Please note this event is suitable for adult audiences (15+). Click here to register.

Holocaust Memorial Day

Wednesday 27th January 7:00pm

UK Commemorative Ceremony for HMD 2021

The Holocaust Memorial Day Trust in partnership with Interfaith Scotland warmly invite you to join the whole of the UK on January 27th 2021 to an online ceremony to mark Holocaust Memorial Day. Click here to register.

Jewish Education Volunteers

Our team at SCoJeC is seeking volunteers to help deliver, teach, and create resources for Jewish learning in schools throughout Scotland. Volunteers need to be available during weekdays to accommodate school hours and be willing to learn how to engage over Zoom and Teams digital meetings. Please complete the volunteer's application form if interested. The form can be found here.

Scottish Jewish Textile Craft Group

Join an online group for Jewish people in Scotland interested in textiles, crafts, and Judaica. This is primarily a social group for sharing ideas, techniques, and skills and potentially a forum for developing fundraising ideas for local Jewish and Scottish Charities.

Meeting monthly on zoom starting on Wednesday 20th January 2021 at 7.30pm. For more information, please contact Elaine Levy.

Israel Bar Bat Mitzvah Programme

The programme is primarily intended for children across Scotland who will be celebrating their Bnei Mitzvah soon, primarily in P7, and is also open to others who are celebrating soon or have celebrated recently.

The programme will have eight sessions, hosted via Zoom until the summer, with participants across Scotland, as well as Manchester and Leeds. We will also have a few sessions exclusively for the Scottish participants. The programme is free to join, and participants can register here.

Contact Us:

Ruby Katz, Projects and Outreach Manager

222 Fenwick Road, Glasgow, G46 6UE

Email: ruby@scojec.org

Mobile: 07460 094 011

Website: www.scojec.org